

March 18, 2015

The Saratoga Town Board met at 6:00 p.m. in the town office. Chairman Rickaby called the meeting to order. Forbes was absent. The meeting was officially noticed.

Heeg made a motion to approve the March 4th, 2015 meeting minutes. Frank seconded it. Motion passed.

Sam Heeg gave the EMS report. March 21 is their fundraiser. They will be having extrication training on June 27 at the Town Hall. The Nekoosa Fire Department would like the EMS to man a Rehab trailer that would be used at fire calls throughout the area. They would be monitoring and taking care of the firefighters at the scene. There would be an EMS member on call at all times to move the trailer. They will get more information.

Tom Grygo presented the Board some revisions and amendments to the zoning ordinance to review. There are some things that need to be changed and they would like to add non-metallic mining to the zoning ordinance. It will be on the next agenda after the Board has had time to review the changes.

The Town received a letter from the Wisconsin Utility Tax Association. The membership fee would be $100 a year. The Town will contact the Towns Association to see if it would be something that would be a benefit.

Passineau made a motion to donate $200 to the Wisconsin Rapids School Safety Patrol out of Danny Forbes donation fund. Frank seconded it. Motion passed.

Lorelei Fuehrer gave the building inspector's report. A person would like to buy the building in front of Deer Trail Park Campground. They would like to remodel it and start a sign business. It is zoned a residential property. It would have to go to the Plan Commission to look at having it possibly re-zoned.

Billie Jo Kester gave the Treasurer's report.

Dave Ryun gave the Constable's report. He is going to start enforcement on April 1st on properties that have complaints and need to be cleaned up. Dave will check Strangfield's on Hollywood Road. John Sweet's court was adjourned until June due to health issues. Leo Piatz's trial is scheduled for next week. The Town received a letter from Dean Folts regarding his property.

Correspondence was read.

Heeg made a motion to approve the bills paid. Passineau seconded it. Motion passed.

Town Books were audited
